The Jean Moore Memorial Cup for Outstanding Contribution to Fellow Students

Zoe Lister

Zoe has a student first mindset and has shown a real willingness to support the needs of others both within our school and local community. As chairman of the Manawatu Youth Council she knows the importance of building and working alongside a strong team who have been a driving force behind many youth initiatives in the region. Zoe has produced excellent academic results with 38 of her 46 Level 3 credits being at an excellence level. She finished the year second in Mathematics with Statistics and also finishing in the top 5 in English and Business Studies. She has continued to find ways to ensure that the wellbeing of our students, staff and the community are prioritised. It has been Zoe's willingness to give back to others which has been a highlight throughout the year. Her Student Volunteer Army Gold award was given in recognition of the 500+ hours she has volunteered during her time at high school. She has also been a member of the school's Giving Back group, a peer support leader and worked towards her Duke of Edinburgh Silver award this year. As Head of the Community Committee she has proven to be an effective and inclusive leader. She has led several successful community focussed fundraising campaigns throughout the year. Zoe has made the most of every opportunity throughout her five years at Feilding High School. We wish her every success as she leaves Feilding High School to pursue further study at Waikato University.

The Burge Family Cup for Outstanding Contribution to Upholding the Values of Feilding High School

Mosese Palelei

Mosese is a young man who epitomises the values of Feilding High School and has been a fantastic role model for others this year. He has shown real integrity and is always true to himself and his values. He has a strong cultural identity evident in his involvement in the school's Pasifika group. It has been his ability to engage with others which has stood out this year with students being drawn to his personality and desire to encourage and support those around him to maintain high standards and to be better than they were before. He has been a reliable member of the school's 1st XV who plays with passion and a commitment to making a contribution on and off the field for his team. Mosese has led the school as Head Boy with a quiet confidence, always supporting his peers and showing kindness to those around him. He is a worthy winner of the Burge Family Cup.

The McLean Memorial Trophy

Jorja Weld

Jorja is a young woman who demonstrates a willingness to have a positive impact on other people's lives. Although quiet by nature she knows how to work effectively with others. She is a student who shows kindness and is always eager to support other students. This is evident in her involvement in the Giving Back Programme, Wellbeing Committee and Student Council. Jorja has been a member of the school's Teen Ag programme since year 9 competing in a range of competitions. She has also been Head of the Fundraising Committee this year and has been a very reliable student who is not afraid to do any job that needs doing. She shows initiative and is always determined to complete any task to a very high standard. With a significant extra-curricular programme Jorja has still been able to produce exceptional academic results this year with all 51 of her Level 3 credits gained at an Excellence level. Congratulations Jorja on a fantastic final year at Feilding High School.

The Bruce Mills Cup and Chairman of the Board of Trustees Prize

Grace Boustridge

Grace has contributed extensively to all aspects of Feilding High School. She has developed her leadership skills through a number of key positions she has held this year. She has been a member of the Student Council as Head of the Environment Committee who have worked as part of a special project with a conservationist to develop a rongoa (traditional Maori medicine) area at the school reserve. Grace is a very hard-working student who endeavours to complete each and every task to a very high standard. Grace is always positive and friendly, eager to make a difference in her school and local community. She received an Arts Gold for her contribution to the school's Production team this year. Grace has been a part of the Giving Back and Peer Support programmes, netball umpiring squad, while also working towards completing the requirements for her Gold Duke of Edinburgh award. Congratulations Grace. She has excelled in the scientific fields of learning, showing a real grasp on the natural and physical world around her.

The Thurston Brothers Cup

Mosese Palelei

Mosese is well-respected by his peers who admire his down to earth nature and ability to connect with others in a meaningful way. In his role as Head Boy he has co-led the Student Council which requires a significant commitment alongside a full academic programme. He spoke eloquently at the Queen's Memorial Service in Feilding and as with many of the activities he has undertaken has been a fantastic ambassador for our school. Mosese is a talented rugby player and is a member of the school, 's 1st XV and rugby sevens teams. Mosese prioritises people and can often be seen engaging with junior students around school and hostel. He leads by example and as such is a fantastic role model for other students. He has a desire to lift others up and enable them to feel like they belong in our school community. He is a recipient of a Manawatu Young Achiever award this year and at the school Arts awards he was recognised with the Toi Whakaari award with a kaupapa of success by lifting others something which epitomises Mosese's approach to school life.

The Trevor Ford Trophy

Millie Hansen

Millie has provided steady, dependable and reliable co-leadership of the Student Council in her role as Head Girl this year. She understands the importance and value of surrounding yourself with a strong team in order to achieve common goals. This has also been evident in her commitment to the school's 1st XV girl's rugby team during her time at school and as a member of the Manawatu U18 rugby team. Millie was a great ambassador for the school at the Queen's Memorial Service where spoke with insight about young people, a connection to the monarchy. She is a student who has a great sense of humour and the ability to engage with students from all year levels in a positive and friendly manner. Millie is also a recipient of a Manawatu Young Achiever Award this year. She has produced very good academic results even with a busy school and extra-curricular schedule. Thank you Millie for your leadership and commitment to upholding the values of Feilding High School.

Feilding High School Team of the Year

1st XV Boys Rugby Team

The 1st XV boy's team have had a fantastic season with wins over some massive rugby schools across the North Island including Hastings, New Plymouth and Gisborne Boys High Schools. The season culminated with the boys winning the Central North Island competition for the first time, beating St Johns College of Hamilton in the final. This team has not only experienced success as a collective group but a number of players have been recognised individually for higher honours. Vernon Bason was selected as Captain of the New Zealand Secondary School's team, and Kade Manuel and Sam Kane for the New Zealand Maori u18 team. The selection into national age group teams highlights the quality of our school's rugby programme and the reward for all of hard work and commitment from the coaching team who provide fantastic support to the players both on and off the field. Congratulations boys on a great season and we wish all of the players heading to the Condors 7's competition at the end of the year all the best.

Feilding High Sportsperson of the Year

Vernon Bason

Vernon Bason has produced an incredibly memorable season of performances and achievements on the rugby field this year as both a player and a leader. Vernon has led the Feilding High School's 1st XV with real passion, developing a culture where the young men playing alongside him are determined to achieve to the best of their abilities for themselves and each other. He is a role model for other players who are willing to follow the lead of a player that approaches every aspect of the game with resolute physicality, with his physical resolve admired by all who watch him play. He was selected to captain the Hurricanes u18 team before being named as the captain of the New Zealand Secondary Schools team - an incredibly prestigious position. Vernon's 15s rugby season was completed with him being awarded the Supreme Boy of the Year at the Manawatu Secondary School Sports awards. Vernon leaves Feilding High School this year and has signed a professional Rugby Contract with the Manawatu Turbos that will enable him to undertake tertiary studies and begin his professional Rugby career. Vernon is a deserving recipient of the Sportsperson of the year award.

The Creativity and Excellence in the Arts Award

Lawson Elmslie

The recipient of this award is a student that epitomizes hard work and is a role model for all students, past, present and future. They have demonstrated the highest level of commitment, dedication and integrity to the arts while gaining exceptional results. Lawson Elmslie epitomises creativity and excellence across a diverse range of artistic fields. He was the Visual Arts academic captain this year. Lawson is a playwright, while also showing his talents as an actor on the stage at the NZ Theatre Federation One Act Play Festival qualifying for the Lower North Island regionals. He also directed at the Regional Shakespeare Festival as well as leading the school's Theatre sports team. Lawson has been actively involved in the media committee for two years. He has consistently gained Excellences in Art Photography. Lawson has a thoughtful approach, is a tenacious shoot director and a meticulous planner. Lawson is a critical thinker who investigates a multitude of approaches before refining and re-defining his subject matter. Lawson is undertaking Level 3 Scholarship this year in both Visual Art and Drama. He is applying for the New Zealand Drama school Toi Whakaari. Congratulations Lawson!

The Kereama and Ryniker Cup for Merit, Tolley Memorial Prize and OPA Badge and Life Membership

Zoe Lister

Zoe has embraced the school's motto of belong, engage and succeed in all that she has contributed to school life over the last five years. She is a student who is motivated by adding value to those within her school and local community. She has been recognised as a Manawatu Young Achiever award for her willingness to give back. Zoe is a proactive and inclusive leader. She was selected to attend World Vision's Senior Scholarship Summit and has also gained the Student Volunteer Armys Gold Award for 500+ hours of community work. As Head of the Community Committee, Zoe has led several fundraising campaigns; including Shave for a Cure which raised over $34000. Zoe has excellent time management skills and works well in a collaborative way to bring about positive outcomes for others. Thank you Zoe for your contribution to Feilding High School.

The Hoggard Family Trophy for Runner Up to Dux

Hannah Brown

Hannah has shown an unwavering commitment to pursuing her academic goals. Her diligence is evident in her excellent academic results across all subjects. Hannah is very self-motivated and has shown the resilience to push through the challenges presented to her. All 50 of her Level 3 credits this year have been attained at an Excellence level. Her academic strengths this year have been in the field of Commerce. She finished the year with 1st placings in Economics, Business Studies, and Accounting, as well as a 3rd placing in Mathematics with Statistics. Hannah is a very capable independent learner who works with focus and determination. Her written work reflects her ability to be a critical thinker and understand how classroom knowledge can be applied in the real world. Hannah has a strong sense of justice as well as the ability to empathise with others. Her desire to support others has been the motivation for her involvement in the Giving Back Volunteer Group. Hannah has shown real integrity and is always true to herself and her values. She has been a determined and hard-working student who has sought opportunities for personal growth and development both inside and outside of school. Congratulations on your academic achievements this year and we wish you all the best as you pursue further academic study at Victoria University in 2023.

The Form Seven Cup and The Principal's Prize for Dux of the School

Oliver Dawson

Oliver is a hard-working and determined student. He has excelled in the scientific fields of learning, showing a real grasp on the natural and physical world around him. He gained first place in Chemistry, Physics, and Calculus this year with a fourth place in English. Oliver was selected as the Academic Captain for Mathematics and has showed a real talent in this subject area. He was one of only three students who worked towards a Canterbury University Mathematic paper this year, gaining an A+ grade for the paper. He has proven himself to be a very self-motivated and independent learner who has a good sense of humour. All of Oliver's 32 Level 3 credits have been at an Excellence level. During his time at Feilding High School Oliver has participated in the school's football programme, debating, music, table tennis and chess. Oliver's academic results are a reflection of his exceptional work ethic and determination to make the most of every learning opportunity. Congratulations Oliver on your academic success this year and we wish you all the best for your tertiary studies next year at Canterbury University.
