The Rick T. Francis Memorial Cup for Junior Sportsperson of the Year

Hana Symes

Hana is an outstanding athlete who has competed at local, regional and national level across a number of sports and has been an integral part of a number of school sports teams this year. After winning the 100m, 200m, 400m and long jump in the Junior Girls grade at the Manawatu Secondary School Athletics Championships she gained further success at the North Island Secondary School Athletics Championships. Hana placed first in the Junior Girls 300m and was part of the 4x400m relay team that placed first and the 4x100m relay team that placed third. She also finished with a Silver medal in the Junior Girls 200m. As a rugby player Hana has played in the FAHS 1st XV, and girls 7s teams as well as the Manawatu u16 representative team. Hana was a member of the Junior A1 netball team at school and was selected for the Manawatu u14 green team. Her talents have also been evident with rugby league with her selection for the NZ Maori u14 League team. Hana has huge potential to be a sporting super star with success across so many different sporting codes. Congratulations Hana on all that you have achieved this year. Kia Toa Kia Ngakaunui.

The Feilding High School Cup for Academic Excellence in Year 9

Thomas Churton

Thomas finishes the year as the top student in Year 9 Science and Social Studies with a shared 2nd placing in Mathematics. He is a thoughtful, diligent and reflective student who is able to express his ideas clearly. Thomas applies his knowledge and skills to wider world problems and is eager to expand his understanding of all topics. He is an independent and self-directed learner who is always contributing enthusiastically to class discussions. He is supportive of other students. He completes all of his work to a very high standard. Thomas has also been involved in the school's Robotics programme this year. Thomas, you have made a fantastic start to your time at Feilding High School. Congratulations on your academic results this year.
