FAHS Cup and Feilding Rotary Prize for Academic Excellence at Year 11

Jemimah Chisholm

Jemimah is a student whose quiet determination and strong work ethic have led to outstanding achievements across both academic and co-curricular areas of school life. She finishes the year with first placings in English and Music Industry as well as top 4 placings in Mathematics, Music and DVC. Jemimah is a mature and thoughtful learner who consistently seeks feedback to improve, often completing work ahead of deadlines. She is a talented writer and problem solver, respected by both her teachers and peers for her diligence and collaborative spirit. Alongside her academic success, Jemimah is a gifted flautist who has contributed significantly to the school's musical programme. She has performed in the Music Showcase, Major Production Band, Chamber Music groups and Concert Band, where she has really developed her music talents. Jemimah is a kind and empathetic student who regularly offers help to others. Congratulations Jemimah on your recognition as our top academic student in Year 11 this year!
